

Low Cost Gift Ideas

SUB FOR SANTA

Make a family matching game out of cardboard or cut cards out of plywood or chipboard. Glue pictures of your entire family or friends on them.

Make a picture frame out of a cereal box or other cardboard, cut it into a square with a square center removed. Cover it with your favorite paper or fabric and put a picture behind it.

Take a big matchbox and glue a photo on it. Buy a pretty candle and wrap it with the matchbox.

Print your photos for cheap at www.phephoto.com

Give a coupon book of activities you can do together or make service vouchers like a car wash.

101 reasons (or less if you want) why I love you. Take 101 kisses and attach 101 reasons why you love the person.

Give the gift of warmth by putting hot chocolate packets into a cool mug with a candy cane to stir. Wrap it in cellophane and tie it closed with a ribbon.

Sew an apron. It is very easy plus you can get great deals on fabrics. Find a large variety of patterns at: www.tipnut.com/56-free-apron-patterns-you-can-make/

Buy a blank calendar or download one from the internet. Decorate it with personal or cute photos for someone you love.

Compile a history by gathering cool stories, historical accounts and photographs from grandparents, ancestors and other cherished family memories.
