

Court Appointed Community Service

UNITED WAY . . . TOGETHER WE CAN DO MORE

The United Way Volunteer Center is focusing on what matters in Utah County by promoting effective service and connecting community members to volunteer opportunities that will have the greatest impact.

Available on Weekends

The Utah State Hospital has opportunities for volunteers to help with cleaning, washing windows and other tasks within the kitchen area. Food preparation and service is also available. For more information, contact Jim at 344-4716. (Provo)

The Lehi Legacy Center has opportunities for volunteers to help with janitorial work and recreational programs. Opportunities vary depending on need. For more information, contact Jim at 768-7124. (Lehi)

Local city parks are looking for volunteers to assist with maintaining parks, streets and cemeteries. Pulling weeds, raking leaves, and painting pavilions or benches may be some of the services performed. For more information about park cleanup, contact your local city office for information: Orem City (Laura, 229-7560), or Veterans Memorial Cemetery (Monte or Arnold, 801-254-9036).

Volunteer with Habitat for Humanity by participating in building homes for low-income families. Opportunities are available for skilled and unskilled labor. For more information, contact Rachel at 344-8527. (Orem)

Public libraries have several opportunities available. Contact your local library to find out about current projects and ongoing needs. Some opportunities may include mending/re-shelving books and data entry. For more information, contact the following numbers: American Fork (763-3070), Pleasant Grove (785-3950) (must be assigned from Pleasant Grove or Lindon courts), and Lehi (768-7150). The Provo library does not have volunteer opportunities at this time.

Mountainlands Community Housing Trust Assists families in building their first homes. No experience in building a home is required. For more information contact Sharon at (435) 647-9719. (Park City)

At-Home Opportunities

The Juvenile Justice Services encourages individuals to make and donate items to youth. Some ideas include quilts, fleece blankets, bookcases, games and other items for youth living in the facility. For more information about the approval of the items and arrangement for supervision, contact Linda at 491-0118. (Springville)

Maintenance and Cleaning

Food and Care Coalition has opportunities for volunteers to help with maintenance and cleaning chores. Volunteers must schedule at least one week in advance. There are no evenings or weekend opportunities available. Contact Nancy for eligibility requirements and scheduling at 373-1825. (Provo)

The American Red Cross is looking for volunteers to help with building maintenance, cleaning and repair. A variety of other tasks are available as well. For more information, contact Nancy at 373-8580. (Provo)

Outdoor Work

Slate Canyon Youth Center is looking for volunteers to help with yard work and landscaping such as planting flowers, weeding and lawn mowing. This is mainly for those who would like to work off community service hours, or for large groups looking for service projects. You must pass a background check to do service with this organization. For more information, contact Linda at 491-0118. (Provo)

The Migrant Head Start program in Genola is in need for volunteers to come help with various outdoor tasks such as landscaping, snow removal, etc. For more information, contact José at 754-0700. (Genola)

The North Pointe Solid Waste Special Service District is looking for volunteers to help pick up litter and help with other minor clean-up projects in Northern Utah County. For more information contact Rodger or ask for a shift supervisor at 225-8538 ext 14. (Lindon)

Miscellaneous

Community Action Regional Food Bank is looking for individuals 18 years and older, to help sort and stock nonperishable food items. Volunteers can also help compile family food boxes. For more information, contact Laura Kay at 373-8200 ext 247. (Provo)

Clerical

Various office tasks are available at the American Red Cross, including computer input, typing, filing and stamping. Participants need to give one to three weeks notice. For more information, contact Nancy at 373-8580 for details. (Provo)

Payson City offers a variety of volunteer opportunities. For more information, contact Pam at 465-5209. (Payson)

Slate Canyon Youth Center offers volunteers to help answer phones, typing, filing, and stamping. For more information, contact Linda at 491-0118. (Provo)

The National Kidney Foundation would like volunteers to help with phone calls, filing, and other office tasks. For more information, contact Chris at 226-5111. (Provo)